President Raymond B. Allen
University of Washington
Seattle, Washington

Dear President Allen:

STAT We appreciated your suggestion that come through [redacted] with regard to the speeches you are currently making on the West Coast. In light of the delicate situation and the publicity which had already been given to your new appointment, we felt it was probably wiser not to make any specific suggestions until we had a chance to discuss the whole situation more thoroughly with you.

We are looking forward to your arrival here and to our work together. We want you to know that we will give you every possible help and assistance.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
